

Holiday destinations to go on Eid

The Eid is not complete without going for holidays. There are many places that you can visit during the Eid holidays. Here you will get the best destination where you can visit with your family. These Ramadan Vacation Destinations will not leave you broke.

Istanbul Turkey

Istanbul is Turkey's largest city and is one of the best places to spend your Eid Family Vacation . One of the attractions that you will get in the turkey is the Sultan Ahmed mosque. The blue mosque is a popular attraction for many travellers. A large percentage of the country's population is Muslims and you do not have to worry about prayer facilities. For shopping lovers, Istanbul is the place to be. The grand bazaar is the largest market in the world and you will shop until you drop. The food is not left out; you can enjoy delicacies like baklava and kebab.

Malaysia

The official religion in Malaysia is Islam. Therefore, it is the best place to spend your Eid. You can take part in the Eid festivities held in the country. There is a wide variety of dishes at your disposal like the satay and rendang. Not to forget the desserts like the dodol that will leave you asking for more. Surely, you will have the best time if you choose Malaysia to be your Eid travel destination. Malaysia offers a blend of natural wonders and modern-day luxuries. Visiting Malaysia gives you the opportunity to witness nature's finest work of art. While in this beautiful country, you can visit the Gunung Mulu national park, Batu caves and Mount Kinabalu.

India

India also makes it to the list of the Best Eid Holiday Destinations. One of the festivals in this part of the world is Ramadan and that makes it the perfect place to spend your Eid. A visit to India will be a good destination, especially on a budget. If you do not know which city to visit, you should try Mumbai. In Mumbai, Eid is celebrated with joy. During the celebration, the streets are lit up with decorations and vibrant colours. There are also some mouthwatering dishes that you can try while in Mumbai.

The above are just some of the popular destination that you can go to enjoy your Eid holidays. You are guaranteed of having a good time and enjoy all the celebrities in these places. Go ahead and choose your Eid Holidays in Maldives and spoil your family.